

CHANDRAGIRI -7HRS WALK

Trip Overview

Drive 4w drive, South East, this is an amazing day hike, in normal clear weather, can be seen the Himalayan ranges, including Mt. Everest, Gourishankar, Dorjelakpa, Khang Chhembu. Lang tang, Ganesh Himal. Manasalu, Annapuarna and Dhaulagiri. Even you get to see Shisapanga which is in the Tibetan mountains. Chandragiri top altitude is 2400m. Up up to the top then walking along the ridge with amazing views south is Kathmandu Valley and north East to west is the Himalayan ranges. Walking through beautiful oak trees and some part is the meadow, where animals are will grazing need to carefully watch out for freshwater buffalo poo, don't want to step on it. Oak trees, local people make coal out of it and sell it for their cash income, this trail is also been introduced as a mountain bike trail and the Nepal Tourism board has been involved to develop the short trekking route, they have built stone staircases. After lunch starts descending to Champa Devi a Hindu and Buddhist shrine both together, Each year a special day for people to worship many people attend the ritual. Continuing downhill. Hatthiban resort in the pine trees beautiful location, vehicle drive back to Kathmandu at 1:40hrs.